LIVONIA REGAINS HER FORM

MAX HIRSCH'S FLEET FILLY TRIUMPHS IN THE WILLOW STAKES.

Jockey Dugan's Skill Enables The Squire to Win Handicap at Gravesend-Favorites Make Good Showing.

New York, September 21.—Livonia quickly regained her stake form under Dugan's masterly handing in the Willow, which she won at Gravesend today in a common canter from Louise S., Starport, Indian Maid and Bang. The last named was an added starter, and ran far below her private trials. The winner was heavily played at odds-on, despite her recent defeat, and her decisive victory on this occasion emphasized the superlative qualities of the Montpeller Stable's filly, Mexona, which had raced Livonia into submission upon the occasion of her last start. Louise S. and Starport, which finished second and third respectively, exhibited superior speed and stamina, but they were completely out-classed by Livonia. Indian Maid has lost her good Sheepshead Bay form entirely. With a pull in the weights, the former Forsythe filly was unable to keep within hailing distance of the three leaders. The card's remaining races were well-halanced afairs and developed interesting as well as satisfactory sport. After the upset involved by the victory of King's Commoner in the introductory sprint, followed by the success of The Peer in the second, favorites scored at lucrative prices down the program.

factory sport. After the upset involved by the victory of King's Commoner in the introductory sprint. Tollowed by the success of The Peer in the second. favorites scored at lucrative prices down the program.

The handicap, contested by five horses, developed a spectacular struggle. Dugan's presence on The Static by the contest of the support and the check joekey proceeded to make good by beating the harrier broading the bulk of the support and the carek joekey proceeded to make good by beating the harrier for a starter, then kept in close touch with the pace while his supposed formidable contenders were dawdling in the rear and finally picked up the running in a successful short dash to the wire. Woodcraft's belated move proving ineffective. Jockey Butwell's effort on the Hildreth gelding was singularly inadequate. Rio Grande looked well physically, but failed to respond as usual at the crucial stage of the running, and the reason became apparent when he came back limping painfully 'after the finish. Weather and track conditious considered. The Squire's time of 1:53 for the mile and an cighth was fast and shows that the winner is just now at the other than the first race. Royal Captive, a frequent disappointment this year, receded more conspicuously than ever when nearing the finish on this occasion. Trainer Welsh was so chagrined over her had showing that he declared he would forthwith retire the exquisitely-bred Golden Maxim—Mary Stuart filly to the stud. Pat Dunne's successful development of the recent California season, The Peer, displayed a return to his best form in winning the mile and a quarter selling pater division. After his remarkable saddle exploits on Superstition, Livonia and The Squire, jockey Dugan was encouraged to try and win another race on a vastly inferior horse in Innitator. He succeeded in beating the barrier and encouraged the filly's backers by maintaining a long lead for hearty a mile of the lighty-weighted and persistent Taboo, which drew out only in the final hundred yards. WESTERN STABLES LEAVING THE EAST.

New York, September 21.—Jack Baker will leave for Churchill Downs at once with his own horses and those he is training for R. H. Anderson, The smartest racer in Mr. Baker's stable is the Peep o' Day colt, Joe Morris. Joe Morris is a two-year-old of prepossessing appearance and fine speed, but he falled to win in the east. Crystal Maid, a daughter of Firate of Fenzance, with which Mr. Baker won several good races in muddy going at Saratoga, and Aspirin, a speedy plater, are two of the horses Mr.

Aspirin, a speedy plater, are two of the horses Mr. Baker, Will race at Louisville during the autumn meeting of the Louisville Jockey Club.

Kimball Patterson has finished the task of breaking seven yearlings for Henderson & Hogan, and the youngsters are en route to Louisville from Sheenshead Bay with the balance of the Henderson & Hogan stable.

NO DEVELOPMENTS AT GRAVESEND.

New York, September 21.—There was no falling off in attendance from the regular week-day patronage at Gravesend today. The usual contingent of plain-clothes sleuths was on hand, but found nothing to do. The Hart-Agnew law is being rigorously enforced by the Pinkertons, who are in the employ of the Jockey Club. The existence of the alleged warrants yet to be served that have hung like a pall over the betting ring for the last two racing days, is beginning to be doubted. Saturday and Monday having passed without more arrests, the opinion grows that the district attorney has no further intentions in that direction. It is expected that the cases of the nineteen arrested men will come up some time next week. Layers and others do not pretend to think that any convictions will be secured.

WILSON STABLE AT BELMONT PARK.

New York, September 21.—Trainer Thomas J. Healey has transferred Mexoana, winner of the Junior Champion, Beaucoup and the rest of the horses of the Montpeller Stable from Sheepshead Bay to the regular stabling quarters at Belmont Park. The twenty yearling colts purchased by Mr. Wilson from John E. Madden, now at the Saratoga race course, will be brought to the Westchester Racing Association's course next month.

YEARLING SHOWS SMART TRIAL.

New York, September 21.—One of the yearlings purchased by former jockey Joe Jones at the sale of August Belmont's youngsters has shown a smart trial over the Gravesend track. The invenile is a bay gelding named Lochiel, by Hastings, out of Lady of the Valley, dam of Lord of the Vale and other good racers. The youngster's move was decidedly impressive, several horsemen timing his trial of a quarter in 23 seconds.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS

Since the last publication of the list of leading owners of this year S. C. Hildreth has had his horses bustly and successfully racing at Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend to such good effect that he has increased his stable earnings from $137,017 to $148,302. There is now no chance that he can be overtaken and his position as the leading winning owner of 1909 is absolutely assured. In the same time his closest competitor, James R. Keene, has gained in stable winnings moderately, so that his credit is now $105,358, as compared with $104.348. His position in second pidace is as well settled as that of Hildreth in the leadership. H. G. Bedwell and B. Schreiber are still third and fourth and have drawn so far in advance of P. T. Chinn that the latter no longer immediately threatens to pass above them in the list. It will be observed that the horses belonging to the thirty most successful owners have won for them an aggregate of $841,445, with so much racing yet to be done this year that this total may be reasonably expected to reach a million dollars or more. The obvious deduction is that our racing is still in a healthy condition, despite the hard blows given it in the course of the past two years. It still pays to own a good race horse. The stable winnings of the thirty leading owners, including Monday's racing, are as follows:

NESTOR A PROMISING STEEPLECHASER.

New York, September 21.—Nestor, the Golden Garter—Amourette three-year-old that William Garth is training for the Harbor Hill Steeplechase for Morton and Charles Schwartz, continues to do well. Most of the cross-country folk seem to think that Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., has a mortrage on the Harbor Hill, and there is no denying that he has a couple of promising young jumpers in Clockwork and Oakhurst. Mr. Garth says, however, that Mr. Hitchcock will have to send out another Stokes if he wants to beat Nestor. The Schwartz brothers purchased Nestor at the Thomas sale last year for $100 and taught him his first steps themselves. He was schooled as a two-year-old, and from the very beginning he seemed to take a liking to fencing. Morton Schwartz is inclined to fear that Nestor may not stay, but Mr. Garth has no apprehension on that score.

not stay, but Mr. Garth has no apprehension on that score.

Mr. Hitchcock will make no effort to get Mellowmint ready for the Harbor Hill. The nomination of that big good-looking son of Ben Holladay was not seriously intended. When Mr. Hitchcock purchased Mellowmint it was with the intention of putting him through the steeplechase field, but he did not hope to fit him for a Harbor Hill on eight or nine weeks notice. Mr. Hitchcock's Ogden geldings, like Nestor, began the lessons in steeplechasing like Nestor, began the lessons in steeplechasing them last fall before they had attained their third birthday.

It is improbable that Mr. Hitchcock will have

FANSHAWE STABLE NUMBERS 23 HEAD.

New York, September 21.—Richard Miller will have a bigger stable to train next season for William S. Fanshawe, proprietor of Silver Brook Farm, than he ever handled for Philip J. Dwyer. Already his establishment numbers twenty-three head and there may be more additions to it later on. The two-year-olds Miller is training for Mr. Fanshawe are Loco, Curly Locks, Spindle, Beanie, Separation, Fudge, Elberon, The Turk and Miss Hookran, and there are fourteen yearflings. Mr. Fanshawe's youngsters this season are sons and daughters of Heno, the Henry Young stallion that defeated Africander in the Standard Stakes of 1963. They are rather undersized, but they all have speed and they appear to be game as well. Mr. Fanshawe's young ten or a dozen mares with fonds at their sides at the sale of E. R. Thomas' stud at Holmdel last September. Those youngsters were by Golden Garter, Hermis and Toddington, and they will be two years old on the first of January. The Fanshaw yearlings are a well-grown lot and they bid fair to make two-year-olds of good size.

ANOTHER FAVORABLE CANADIAN DECISION.

Victoria, B. C., September 21.—Following the recent decisions in the east, Chief Justice Hunter of British Columbia has handed down a ruling that betting 4n race tracks in British Columbia is legal, provided the bookmakers have no fixed place of occupation. Bets can be made if the layers keep moving about, while payments can be made at a fixed booth. The decision was rendered following an action arising out of the recent meeting held here. In view of an objection raised against betting at the forthcoming fair to be held here shortly, and the decision of the directors that betting shall be allowed, the decision has created widespread interest in Victoria, as well as at Vancouver, where a two-months meeting is new in progress.

REGRETS HAVING LET ADAM GO.

Lexington, Ky., September 21.—Sanford C. Lyne, he master of Larchmont Stud, who did so well on is special to the sale of the s son of St. Simon, which sold for $7,500 as a rling.

He is a good horse, I am sure," said Mr. Lyne, it he is evidently not suited to mate with my res. I bred only two to him last spring. If I mot find a buyer for him I'll present him to the eding bureau. I do not know what horse, if any, vill buy to take his place. The mistake that we nituckians made was in letting Adam go back to ince. We could have bought him from the Mill-cam Stud people for $60,000. That would have n $6,000 each from a syndicate of ten of us, and could have bred five mares aplece to him and I our money back with interest in three years, a pity that horse did not stay in America."

YEARLINGS IN "BUB" MAY'S STRING.

New York, September 21.—The eight yearlings that "Bub" May has taken to Kentucky to winter for Morton and Charles Schwartz and prepare for racing flext season are a bay colt by Broomstick, out of Ascot Belle, a chestnut colt by Islington out of Dainty, a bay colt by Yorkshire Lad out of Pricess, a bay colt by Woolsthorpe out of Allie Belle, a blonse, a bay colt by Woolsthorpe out of All Lone, and a bay colt by Woolsthorpe out of All Lone, and a bay colt by Schittliant II. out of Jessie Woodson, a bay fell by Schittliant II. out of Jessie Woodson, a bay fell by Schittliant II. out of Jessie Allie Charles of the Coltan Charles of Colton Queen. The Islington—Dainty colt was the star of Henry T. Oxnard's sale. Dainty, a darghter of Henry T. Oxnard's sale. Dainty, a darghter of Golden Garter, was an exceptionally fast and game mare and her first foal is a slugularly pressessing colt. The Broomstick—Ascot Belle colt was one of the youngsters sold by Sanford C. Lyne, of the Larbmont Stud. He was bred at Captain W. Harry Brown's Senorita Stud. Mr. Lyne bought him as a wealling.

This youngster is of the family of Salvidere, Belvidere, Uncle and Sir Dixon, and great things are expected of him. He looks like a horse that would come to hand quickly and go a long route as well.

HOLTMAN RETURNS FROM THE WEST.

Cincinnati, O., September 21.—Starter Jake Holtman, who will preside at the barrier at Louisville and probably at Latonia, arrived vesterday from the far west. Mr. Holtman has been along tour and looks the picture of health. He was in Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Vancouver and other towns in that part of the country during the summer and found the racing in the northwest in Mr. Holtman proceeded to Louisville tonight.

ANOTHER HALF-MILE TRACK MEETING.

Montreal, Que., September 21.—Virtually all of the horses that raced at the Dufferin Park meeting, which closed last Friday, have been transported here to participate in a sixteen-days meeting which will open at Delorimier Park in this city tomorrow, John Boden will officiate as presiding judge and rac-ling secretary, with James F. Milton as starter.

The program offered was a good one. Besides the Michaelmas Handicap, there were offered as catures the Sandringham Purse and the Coventry steeplechase, the latter over the two and a half miles teeplechase, the latter two and the Misses and Universe. The crack steeplechasers Sir Wooster and Thisteldale were among those that went to the post in the Coventry Steeplechase. Four favorites won, the successful choices being Gold Dust, Amelia Jenks, Jeanette M, and Soll. There were two malden races on the card and both of them were won by the cholees. In the Sandringham purse, Cave Adsum showed a splendid performance. He was well ridden by Rice, who avoided the early pace. For the first half mile Cave Adsum was a distant trailer and on the backstretch his chances looked slim. When called on he responded with great courage and, gradually wearing the leaders down, was on almost even terms with them entering the homestretch. In the final furloug he critical the homestretch. In the final furloug he can casy lead of two lengths, and draway into another turn of the course and worked cultimed on out two miles, This was part of the horse's preparation for the Ontario Jockey Club Cup at two miles and a quarter, which will be run next Saturday. J. H. Morris, the well-known Kentucky breeder, was among the visitors at Woodbine this afternoon, it was his first visit to this famous course, and he was exceedingly pleased with the surroundings. Mr. Morris will remain here for several days before returning to his home.

Christopher J. Fitzgerald, the moving spirit in the Montreal Jockey Club, and A. R. Loudon, secretary of the Hamilton Jockey Club, were visitors at Woodbine this afternoon. Mr. Fitzgerald came down from Montreal to enjoy a few days of the Ontario Jockey Club's meeting before leaving on a fortinght's hunting trip with several Canadian friends. Mr. Loudon reports that the indications are that the coming meeting at Hamilton will be the best ever given by the club. The grass course at Hamilton has proven a strong drawling card and many of the prominent stables will go there for the special purpose of starting some of their horses over the turf.

The Hendrie filly Shimonese broke down in her race yesterday, bowing one of her tendons. This means that she will have to be retired for the season. Shimonese was the stable's dependence for the financie Jockey Cup.

BUSY JIMMY EJECTED FROM BUENA VISTA.

Salt Lake City, Utah, September 21.—James Hanby, of Chicago, who was ruled off at the Fair Grounds here last spring for alleged interference in track matters, put in an appearance at the opening of the Buena Vista track, but was escorted from the grounds by an officer and will hereafter be denied admission.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey J. J. Carroll has been suspended at Vancouver for incompetency on account of a bad ride on Mi Derecho.

W. H. Fizer's good two-year-old. Eye White, has been laid up for a spell with a quarter crack, but is once more working in the east.

Dr. Andrew' Smith has returned to Canada from an extended trip abroad, during which he saw Bayardo win the St. Leger at Doncaster.

John Whalen, trainer for August Belmont, has turned over to former jockey Joe Jones the two-year-old filly. Sou. Jones will make a winter campaign with the filly.

The Eglinton Purse was the third race at Woodbine last Saturday, and the Eglinton Handleap was one of the fixtures on the same day at theManchester, Eng., meeting.

A. H. Higginson of Boston, who races under the sobriquet of "Mr. Chetland," was the purchaser of Clell Turney, which changed hands at Montreal last week. The horse will be schooled for jumping.

Rocky O'Brien, winner of the Hopeful Stakes at Saratoga, is in superb condition. As he is a perfectly sound colt Kimball Patterson, his trainer, will experience no trouble pointing him for his autumn engagements.

Rumor has it that a powerful confederacy which a few years ago maintained a strong stable of steephen states and Canadian owners.

Jack McGinnis believes he will win the filly end of the Matron with Angerona. He will not, therefore, put that daughter of Sir Dixon and Falaska in tomorrow's sale at Gravesend. She and Shannon will form the nucleus of the McGinnis stable for next season.

next season.

Bartlett McLennan's Agent, a winner of the Chambion, is so badly broken down that all hope of getting him to the post again this season has been abandoned. The George Kessler gelding runtured the ligaments of both hind legs in a stiff gallop several weeks ago.

"To the lover of steeplechases the greatest stakes for money value and contest for the year will be given. The Harbor Hill Steeplechase, for three-year-olds, to which is added $3,000 and a cup by Clarence H. Mackay, promises to be the greatest contest of three-year-olds over a steeplechase course seen in this country. Twenty-three youngsters are being schooled and prepared for this race. The Champion Steeplechase, over three miles and a half of country, is the feature which owners aim to win a year in advance. Numbers of other stakes valuable in prize and honor are distributed through the two-weeks meeting, so that the race-goer can expect a most attractive program on any one of the twelve days."

DANNY MAHER TO BECOME TRAINER.

London, Eng., September 21.—Danny Maher, the premier jockey of the world, today confirmed the report that this will be his last season on the turf as a jockey. "There is no reason for any mystery in the matter." Maher said. "If I leave the ranks of the jockeys it will be, I hope, with the good will of both those who are actively in racing and the public that just goes to see a race. I have had a fair share of the rewards that come to a jockey and am bound up in the sport, But." and here the face of Maher assumed a serious aspect, "I value my health much more than I do anything else. I would be foolish not to recognize that I cannot forever ight against nature in the matter of weight. Every year it is growing more difficult for me to keep down to riding weight, and I don't propose to resort to measures that might prove injurious to my health. It is entirely probable that at the end of the season I will hand in the colors, but I will not leave the turf. I shall try my hand at training. Just wheel I may locate I cannot now say. It may be here and it may be in America."

Went to post at 4:49. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Lord Baitimore, from a flying start, proceeded to spreadeagle the others and was incky. Levengston ran in nearest and persistent, but unavailing, pursuit throughout. Over, away poorly, steadily improved his position into a fast going third. Spindle ran in inside close quarters and was crowded repeatedly to the rear, but closed an immense gap in the last half, was much the best and is a coming good one. Grecian Bend was always in close quarters on the inside and well up at the end. Martinez, nearly left, made up much ground and is a good looker and promising. Acceptances for Great Handicaps-McCormick and Shaw to Stay in Germany.

London, Eng., September 12.—Acceptances for the great autumn handicaps are out and there is some the given a chance to show in competition with the best we are able to offer. At any rate he remains in the lists of eligibles to the Cambridgeshire and the Duke of York Handicap at Kempton Park, and in each he is top weight, at 131 pounds, an undesirable position, but one not to be escaped from. He is not without assistance, however, for Mr. Keene's smart filly, Wedding Bells, has also been, left in the Cambridgeshire, and has to carry 112 pounds. His Melisande and Esperanto were declared out. The other Americans in the Cambridgeshire for which weights were accepted are Priscillian, 122 pounds; Mediant, 116; Sir Martin, 136; Norman 111., 114, and Edward, S. the States is not represented in it. Besides Ballot, among the acceptors for the Duke of York Handicap are Sir Martin, 116 pounds, and Norman III., 114. This is a $10,000 race, at a mile and a quarter, and is to be run at Kempton Park Saturday, October 9.

Baron S. A. Oppenheim has renewed the engagement expiring on November 15 with James McCornick, the American trainer, and his compatriot, Shaw, who has shaped well since be commenced riding in Germany and has become very popular.

Ernest Tanner has purchased from Robinson & Clark for $5,000, on behalf of the Japanese Government, that fine-looking horse, Dalgety, a bay son of Arts. Inquirer, Chicago. The Doneaster St. Leger of 1965 was won by W. M. G. Singer's brown colt. Challacombe.

Challacombe.

C. L. Los Angeles, Cal. The place bet on Harrigan won, but at no better than 1 to 2, owing to the deduction of the added starter's price.

J. W., Chicago, Colin's first start in a race was at the Belmont Park spring meeting of 1907. He started in fifteen races and won them all.

J. H., Chicago. The weights published were as sent out from the track. Errors as to weights and distances, while important factors, are at the bettor's risk.

W. V. C., Cincinnati, O. Under the circumstances named by you the bet should be paid, if by "agreement" you mean that the bookmaker has no rule on the subject.

M. F. H., Cincinnati, O. Tony B. is a three-year-old bay gelding, by Tithonus—Josephine, by Panjaue, and so far as is known at this office his owner is G. Nugent. Cannot refer you to any useful book. Charles D. and others, Chicago. Cannie Maid had been bought by C. A. Crew, and the Crew and J. Dyment entries were erroneously coupled. As it was only Fort Garry was J. Dyment's entry, and backers of that entry lost, except in the event that they stipulated "Cannie Maid to start," in which case their bets would be draws.
